As the Founding Member of Livingston Law Firm, Renée had the vision and resolve to build a preeminent civil trial firm in the San Francisco Bay Area. Founded in 2000, the firm attracts top lawyers dedicated to serving an elite and discriminating national client base and increasing diversity and inclusion in the legal profession. Renée served on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Minority and Women Owned Law Firms (NAMWOLF) from 2003-2012 and takes an active role in mentoring women lawyers on the challenges and opportunities of being a woman attorney and business owner. An accomplished trial lawyer and member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), Renée is often engaged to handle complex legal matters in state and federal court that require thoughtful evaluation, creative resolution strategy and effective trial presentation. She handles catastrophic injury, wrongful death and other high-exposure cases primarily in the areas of product liability, trucking and transportation, premises liability and aggravated sexual assault. She brings legal excellence, genuine enthusiasm, unending dedication and the utmost professionalism to each engagement. Renée serves as the President of the the Association of Defense Counsel of Northern California and Nevada and previously served on the Board of Directors for the Contra Costa County Bar Association from 2012-2018. She is an active member of the Women in the Law Committee of the Defense Research Institute, and in 2019 was invited to join the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC) and International Society of Barristers (ISOB). Renée is a proud graduate of the University of California, Santa Barbara with high honors and the University of San Francisco School of Law with honors. She is AV-rated (5.0) by Martindale-Hubbell and a multi-year Northern California Super Lawyer.
